

PHISHING ALERT

Magnolia Bank has received notice of a phishing scam. Please read the message below. If you receive this fraudulent e-mail, DO NOT open the attachment and DELETE the message.

EPCOR is sending this information on behalf of NACHA, additional information on this issue may be found at NACHA's website www.nacha.org

Please alert any financial institution and/or company who have questions about this site and inform them that the e-mail did not originate from NACHA, the website is not that of NACHA's, and inform them to not click on the link.

Random individuals and/or companies may have received a falsified e-mail with the subject title "Rejected ACH Transaction." This e-mail appears to be from NACHA - The Electronic Payments Association telling them that there is a problem with an ACH transaction they have originated. The e-mail includes a link which redirects the individual to a fake web page which appears like the NACHA website and contains a link which is almost certainly executable virus with malware. See sample below.

==== Sample E-mail =====

From: [nacha.org \[mailto:report@nacha.org\]](mailto:report@nacha.org)

Sent: Thursday, November 12, 2009 10:25 AM

To: Doe, John

Subject: Rejected ACH transaction, please review the transaction report

Dear bank account holder,

The ACH transaction, recently initiated from your bank account, was rejected by the Electronic Payments Association. Please review the transaction report by clicking the link below:

Unauthorized ACH Transaction Report (this is the how the link is presented)

As always, if you have any questions, please contact one of our four locations.